

Hawaii Medical College Military Partial Tuition Merit Award Program (MPTMAP)

Active military personnel, veterans, and spouses who are interested in a Health Care related field are eligible to apply for, and be considered for, the Military Partial Tuition Merit Award Program (aka, MPTMAP). This program applies only if the existing Veterans benefits do not cover additional costs such as books, materials, etc. or as deemed not covered by normal benefit channels by the college. The process of applying and being accepted into the standard Hawaii Medical College academic curriculum is separate and distinct from the Military Partial Tuition Merit Award Program application process outlined below. Each Hawaii Medical College academic curriculum start date maintains its own deadlines to which the prospective student must adhere to in order to qualify for the tuition merit award program.

The Military Partial Tuition Merit Award Program provides an opportunity for Hawaii active military personnel, veterans, and spouses to qualify for a tuition waiver related to the Hawaii Medical College academic curriculum of their choice. Qualification for the MPTMAP require that an awarded student continues to exemplify the academic spirit of the career-education focus at Hawaii Medical College. Eligible students who apply for the MPTMAP are evaluated on an availability basis in accordance to the review and granting process all applicants must complete.

To be considered eligible for the waiver students must meet the following criteria:

- The Hawaii Medical College Military Partial Tuition Merit Award Program is awarded to veterans, active duty military service members, and spouses of active duty service members
- Proof of active military or veteran status is required
- Must meet all Hawaii Medical College Admissions requirements [as published]
- Must apply for a full-time student schedule
- Must complete the GI Bill benefit steps and provide a COE to admissions after you apply for school
 - Be compliant with the GI Bill benefits and eligibility criteria as defined by the Veterans Administration
 - See <https://vaonce.vba.va.gov/> for details
- Must complete and submit a Healthcare industry related essay of no less than 250 words reflecting on their own desires to become a healthcare individual in the roles available within the industry related to the academic programs offered at Hawaii Medical College
 - Questions to be addressed in the essay include:
 - What are your educational and career goals?
 - How did you arrive at these goals?
 - How has your life experience impacted your goals and future aspirations?
 - What are your plans for after you graduate?
 - What supports do you have in your studies?

Accepted MPTMAP students, while attending, will be eligible for up to $2000 off the 2019/20 published degree curriculum tuition costs and are required to adhere to the administrative and academic standards as published in the catalog while completing their program of study at Hawaii Medical College:

- Individual MPTMAP amounts may NOT exceed the actual tuition for the program approved
- Must be enrolled and engaged in a minimum of 5 credits per module within each 10-week academic session [unless the externship is the final course]
